JUNIORS: PARENTAL CONSENT SECTION

1. Mandatory drug testing. As your son/daughter has requested an entry to a Record Status Archery Tournament, we should point out that under AGB Rules they may be requested to provide a sample for drug testing purposing by a "Doping Control Official" appointed by AGB. Failure to comply must, under current rules, be treated as a positive result. Please complete the form below for each junior to signify your acceptance of this condition of entry.

2. Photography and publicity. The form also allows you to indicate that you will allow publication of photographs of the named individual with identifying details, to avoid the need to consult you further. This is not a condition of entry and if you make no declaration on the form, or declare that you do not give permission, any such publication will require your prior consent.
